Drawings

The drawing is objected to because of the following informalities: It appears that Figure 5e has been labeled as Figure 6 and Figure 6 has been labeled as Figure 5e, see the description of these figures at pages 9 and 18 e.g.

Specification

At pages 10 and 11 there are parenthetical references to "paragraph 2", "paragraph 3" and "paragraph 4" which are not understood because the paragraphs of the specification are not so numbered.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112, First paragraph

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 24 and 28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because the best mode contemplated by the inventor has not been disclosed. Evidence of concealment of the best mode is based upon these claims being directed to "a device" but no device having been described in the specification.

Claims 24 and 28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. These claims are directed to "a device". But no device has been described in the specification.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112, Second paragraph

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The claims are generally narrative and indefinite, failing to conform with current U.S. practice. They appear to be a literal translation into English from a foreign document and are replete with grammatical and idiomatic errors.

Art Unit: 2133

Claims 1-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. These claims provide for the characteristics of an error correction code, but, since the claim does not set forth any steps involved in the method/process, it is unclear what method/process applicant is intending to encompass. A claim is indefinite where it merely recites characteristics without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 1-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed recite characteristics of the invention, without setting forth any steps involved in the process, which results in an improper definition of a process, i.e., results in a claim which is not a proper process claim under 35 U.S.C. 101. See for example Ex parte Dunki, 153 USPQ 678 (Bd.App. 1967) and Clinical Products, Ltd. v. Brenner, 255 F. Supp. 131, 149 USPQ 475 (D.D.C. 1966).

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Sharon et al. (2005/0204271), Blanksby et al. (EP 1158682), Chapalain et al. (EP 1317070) and the article by Robert Michael Tanner all show Tanner graphs, Adde et al. (2004/0054954) shows simultaneous access to m elementary code words and l elementary code words, $m > 1$ and/or $l > 1$ enabling the simultaneous supply of at least two elementary decoders and Gueguen (7,027,521) shows that elementary codes are codes with an efficiency greater than or equal to 1.
